

Prezi

If you want a presentation that has a kick, give Prezi a try. Prezi is a free, web-based presentation creator that uses a unique zoom interface—creating a nearly 3-d experience. It takes a bit of learning to understand how it works, but Prezi is definitely one of the most eye-catching presentation tools out there.

Haiku Deck

Haiku Deck is available as an app for the iPad or as a website available from any computer. It essentially simplified PowerPoint and gives the user only a few “looks” to choose from.
